The Ultramontanes.

The answers to the Pope sgainst Italy, all agree that any such programme is not only out of the question but that they seemed was its Beth Hamselfed for. In every Catholic country in Europe there is note or less effort by Ultramontane partisans to draw the governments into a quarrel with Italy. No Ultramontane partisans todraw the governments into a quarrel with Italy. No government has as yet taken it up. In the Danublic has not the questions of the Bandhic has not the questions. France the Republic has met the ques-tion with great delicacy, apparently. It devolved upon Jules Simon to assure the [Boston Letter to the Detroit Free Press.] great body of French Catholics that, while they were secure in their religion, the government would not permit high ecclesiastics to intrigue and foment a baseless quarrel with a friendly foreign power. The Reliam Minister at Paris thanked him for this utterance. The advanced Republicans, like Gambetta, urge vanced Republicans, like Gambetta, urge | Shortly after came Anna Dickinson, and, the government to enter at once upon while registering her own, took the cool a policy of diaestablishment, like that pursued by Bismarck in Germany. But the Republic is not yet strong enough to undertake this task. It belongs to the future. In the meantime the Republic soles allowance for the fact that Mr. Johnfuture. In the meantime the Republic soles and programment performance, without making allowance for the fact that Mr. Johnfuture, and the programment of the fact that Mr. Johnfuture, and the programment of the fact that Mr. Johnfuture, and the programment of the fact that Mr. Johnfuture, and the programment of the fact that Mr. Johnfuture, and the programment of the fact that Mr. Johnfuture, and the programment of the fact that Mr. Johnfuture, and the fact that Mr. John the; government to enter at once upon future. In the meantime the Republic nust temporize with the clerical party. Dickinson, had her name crossed out, and It has one great advantage over the priests in politics,—it will outlive them. But in the Catholic monarchies, the tone of government toward the Vatican is who was then Collector of the Port and a who was then Collector of the Port and a superpose of the collector of the Port and a superpose of the collector of the Port and a superpose of the collector of the Port and a superpose of the collector of the collect patron of the school-ship, cruelly refused to have the Captain hanged at the yard arm. But mark how leaden-footed justice equally discouraging to the temporal pretensions of the Pope, and Melegari, the Italian minister of foreign affairs, is able to assure his Tarliament that "the Powers are convinced that the church and the Pope enjoy complete liberty and independence." The Pope felt the disappointment keenly, as appears from a speech on Saturday.

Cheap Ice This Year. Fittsburgh Evening Leader. Everybody knows ice is plenty this year. The ice men say they'll not make year. The ice men say they if not make anything—that they will lose money on it, and the only thing that keeps them up is the expectation of a scarce crop next year. Ice will keep for ten years and onger if it is properly put up.

Is subservible Actional delayers. Ice will keep for ten years and longer if it is properly put up.

The annual croppage of lee since 1873 varied greatly as to quality. In that year there was 70,000 tons of ice in the county, and it was all sold. In 1874 there was 20,000 tons; in 1875, 20,000, and this year there is 125,000 tons. And the ice men say there is market for it all. This market consumes about 60,000 tons annually, but dealers never consider they are doing well unless they can keep two years stock ahead. They hold what they can till the market runs short, and then what they have lost on previous sales they make up again. That's the only way, they say, any money's to be made out of it. A market such as may be looked for this year old dealers can stand, but new ones just entering the business would not be likely to make any money. Back stock is what they look to—stock held over. The following is a comparative table of prices this year and last, furnished by a well-known dealer of this city:

1876.

1881 Deliveries Weekly. Seven D, liveries Willy.

Each dealer has his own terms this year. Last season when there was such a scarcity dealers from the lakes threatened to compete with the local trade, and the ice men have adopted uniform rates for their mutual interests. This year ice being so plenty, there is no danger competition.

The Jews and the Crucifixion.

Public Leader (English Jewish Organ).

The old and tecnneciously-maintained fallacy that the Jews as a nation are re sponsible for the crucifixion of Jesus Christ, has long ago been exploded to the satisfaction of every enlightened mind. The principal fact that had aided in unmasking the hoary falsehood was, that at the time of the Advent the Jewishrace was as much dispersed throughout the world as at this present time, and had been so for many centuries. Thus colonies exist now in Europe which, founded in the earliest ages of the dispersion, have carefully handed down, from the time of their first formation to the present day, local histories, couched, in their chapters, in the traditionary language of Biblical writers, and analogous in their marvelous details to the Biblical narratives they so closely follow. Every one who has at any time taken any interest in general history has heard of the princely career of the Alexandiran Jews, who, when they immigrated to Spain, gave the masking the hoary falsehood was, that ly career of the Alexandiran Jews, who, when they immigrated to Spain, gave the latter country a race of enlightened statesmen and nobles who raised her to a higher pinnacle of prosperity than she has ever since reached, and who also immemorially connected with her history the names of some distinguished literati, which will be pronounced with reverence and praise when Spain, engulphed in the abyse of monasticism and bigotry which she is every day preparing for herself, shall have seen her name erased from the roll of European nations. The settlements of these Jews were made long before the Advent, Again, the Polish Jews, who at the present moment number between 3,000,000 BY A DECREE OF THE COUNTY Court, I am authorized to borrow
